

Orphan Care Sunday

Children of the World, Inc.

www.childrenoftheworld.com 251-990-3550

Licensed by the State of Alabama as a full-service adoption agency, placing children into adoptive homes in all 50 states. Placement of children are through domestic and international adoption. Currently they have relief programs in India, Mexico and China. They believe the birthright of every child is to be in a loving and nurturing home. Children of the World seeks to restore this birthright to children who are abandoned or orphaned by uniting them with adoptive parents.

Compassion International

www.compassion.com

Compassion International is a child-advocacy ministry that pairs compassionate people with those who are suffering from poverty. The ministry releases children from spiritual, economic, social and physical poverty. The goal is for each child to become a responsible and fulfilled adult. Compassion's work has grown from modest beginnings in South Korea in 1952, when American evangelist Rev. Everett Swanson felt compelled to help 35 children orphaned by the Korean conflict. Today it is a worldwide ministry where millions of children are now reaping the benefits of one man's clear, God-given vision.

Children's HopeChest

www.hopechest.org 719-487-7800

Glorifies God by releasing the potential of orphaned and vulnerable children and their communities through partnerships that cultivate holistic transformation and sustainability. Children's HopeChest engages churches and other Christian communities in long-term partnerships to empower local leaders to share the Gospel, reduce poverty, and create self-sufficiency for every child.

Lifeline Children's Services

www.lifelinechild.org 205-967-0811

Engages on the front lines of the ministry of bringing vulnerable children a hope and a future. The gospel and the biblical mandate to care for the vulnerable have been the constant aim of Lifeline's mission. Lifeline takes part in this mission by equipping the Church to minister in various ways: caring for birthparents and helping them to know Christ and choose life; adopting orphans into families where they can experience the love of Christ and be taught the Gospel; training and discipling older orphans so that they know Christ and are prepared to enter adulthood with the skills to live well; and support families who love vulnerable children through foster care and adoption.
